In morning sessions campers will be placed in age-based groups of 12 students which will travel through two visual arts and two performing arts centers each day. Campers will explore, learn about and play with art. Mornings will be full of "get to know you" and "get to know art" games and activities based on the theme. It will be a time to get messy and even goofy.

In afternoon sessions campers will be grouped by both age and focus area. Campers will learn more about and hone their craft. Afternoons are where campers will delve deeper into their chosen area of interest with self-guided exploration time, group activities, and the design and completion of a product to be presented in a Gallery Exhibit or Stage Performance.

During registration parents will choose either the visual or performing arts area focus.

Campers will stay in this focus area throughout 2 week session. If your camper is interested in both, be sure to sign up for multiple sessions; some in visual arts focus and some in performing arts focus. Each focus area is limited to 24 total campers so be sure to register early for the area you like! Transfers between visual and performing arts areas cannot be made during your registered session (s).

Additional activities will include morning snack time (remember to put something extra in your camper's lunch box), lunch time, afternoon activities, on campus field trips. On select days there will be treats available for purchase and visits from local celebrities.

Campers in the Visual Arts track will receive a take-home portfolio of their artwork at the end of the session. The final Thursday of the session, campers in the visual arts focus groups will display their artwork in the camper gallery and participate in an official gallery reception at 3:30 PM.

Final performances of campers in the Performing Arts track will be recorded and an access link to view the show will be sent to parents at the end of the session.

Other details:

- Face masks are required.
- Each camper will decorate a box to hold their art materials for the entirety of the camp session (as a precaution campers will not share art materials).
- Campers attending the visual arts track must bring their own smartphone or tablet to participate in photo projects and editing. A limited number of smartphones will be available onsite for use.
- Each camper will need a white T-Shirt for designing their own camp shirt
- Bring a bag lunch and snack (no refrigeration available)
- Tennis shoes recommended. Please no open toed shoes.
- Campers do a lot of projects that can get messy, so please wear clothes that can get dirty!
